INSTRUCTIONS

1. You may use the law book and the Commentary ( <http://www.worldbridge.org/wp-content/uploads/2019/01/2017LawsCommentary.pdf>) but you may NOT consult nor speak to anyone else concerning the questions or answers to this test. Before returning the test you must sign the declaration below the last question test by typing your name and NBO membership number.
2. The answers to all questions must include the Law number(s). Use the full Law number, for example 64C1 not just 64. Include all laws if more than one law applies to the situation.
3. Assume all situations occur at fairly high level competition, unless otherwise noted.
4. Situations are in pairs competition, match point scoring, unless noted otherwise.
5. Screens are not in use unless specifically stated. (There are no questions requiring specific knowledge of screen regulations or procedures.)
6. The questions and answers are in Word .docx format so you are not limited for space but your answers, written below the question, must be concise and to the point, and not more than 2-3 lines.
7. Do not just quote the Law. Do not write “offender must pass” – write “North must pass”.
8. Include UI and AI and lead restrictions in your answer if necessary.
9. For multiple choice questions write only the letter of the best answer (a, b, c ....) without explanation unless asked for. Law/s must be stated.
10. For “YES”/”NO” questions answer YES or NO but without explanation unless asked to do so. Law/s must be stated.
11. All questions carry about the same weight.
12. You can use accepted bridge abbreviations such as OOT (out of turn, B=bid, L=lead, OL=opening lead ), UI, AI (unauthorized and authorized information), BIT (break in tempo), LHO, RHO (left and right hand opponent, Pd (partner), SC (system card), LA (logical alternative, M (major suit), m (minor suit), F1, GF (forcing for 1 round, game force), PC for major Penalty Card, pc for minor penalty card; X = double, and of course TD.

GOOD LUCK !

QUESTION 1

Teams: In the closed room board #5 is marked as East dealer, EW Vulnerable. EW bid and make 4Sx (=790) but in attempting to enter the score on the bridgemate it is seen that the board is wrongly marked. The TD determines that the board has not yet been played in the open room.

TD RULING:

LAW/S:

QUESTION 2

Pairs. Mitchell.

During the play of board 15 in round 5 of a 13 round session a player sitting north says that he played the same board in the previous session with his cards being in the East hand. Dummy calls the TD. The TD allows the hand to be completed and on checking confirms that the same hand was played (arrow switched) in the previous session. He checks board 16 and confirms that this too was played previously.

A. Was does the TD do regarding boards 15 and 16?

ANSWER:

LAW/S:

B. Does the TD warn or penalize dummy for calling the TD during the play of the hand?
YES/NO?

ANSWER:

LAW/S:

QUESTION 3

North opens 2NT, east passes and South bids 2C. TD!

South wants to replace his bid with bid of 3C

TD determines that 2C over 1NT is Stayman asking for 4 card majors; 3C asks for 4 or 5 card majors. Both bids can be weak.

HOW DOES THE TD RULE (INCLUDE BIDDING, PLAY AND LEAD RESTRICTIONS:

LAW/S:

QUESTION 4

N	E	S	W
1♦	1♥	1♠	P
3♣	P	3♠	P
4♠	all pass

There are no alerts.

West leads a small heart and declarer asks for a review of the bidding. West replies by giving the bidding of NS 1♦-1♠-3♣-3♠-4♠ without mentioning the heart overcall.

South goes 1 down and realizes that if she had remembered that East overcalled hearts she would have played differently and made her contract. All agree that this was indeed quite likely, and south calls the TD and complains about the incorrect review of the bidding by the opponents.

What is the TD's decision?

ANSWER:

LAW/S:

QUESTION 5

N	E	S	W
1♦	P	1♠	P
3♣	P

At this stage South alerts North's 3♣ bid as agreeing spades and asking about club controls.

East calls the TD about the late alert. He says he wants to change his pass.

East's hand is 7 T542 54 AKT753

TD RULES:

- (a) TD allows East to change his call
- (b) TD does not allow East to change his call
- (c) TD does not allow East to change his call, but will consider awarding an adjusted score after the hand is played.

ANSWER:

LAW/S:

QUESTION 6

N	E	S	W
1♦	1♠`	1♥	TD!

TD gives his ruling and South passes. North must pass whenever it is her turn to call.

The bidding continues

N	E	S	W
1♦	1♠`	P	1NT
P	2♠	P	P
3♦	3♠	P	TD!

East now realizes that North has bid and asks the TD to replace the 3♦ bid with the legal pass and return the contract to 2♠

TD RULING:

LAW/S:

QUESTION 7

N/--	♠ K
	♥ 42
	♦ 10985
	♣ Q108754
♠ 9753		♠ J2
♥ K96		♥ AQ10753
♦ 764		♦ 32
♣ AJ6		♣ K9
	♠ AQ10864
	♥ 8
	♦ AKQJ
	♣ 32

South plays 4♠ and it went heart, another heart ruffed small, spade to the K and diamond to the ace. Then South played the ♠A on which east played ♠J. South now claimed the contract (10 tricks 4♠ =) without saying anything more, the ♠9 and ♠7 from West still in play. West called the TD telling her that South didn't mention anything about the outstanding trumps and that he wants another trick or two.

TD decision is? (a) 4♠= (10 tricks) (b) 4♠-1(9 tricks) (c) 4♠-2 (8 tricks)

ANSWER:

LAW/S:

QUESTION 8

South is declarer in 3NT. Dummy has ♣AQJ106 and South with ♣74 plays ♣4 towards the 10 (opponents play ♣3 and ♣8).

She enters his own hand again and plays ♣7, LHO ♣5. She now says 'small' and the defenders want her to play ♣6 now.

Does the TD allow her to play ♣J or ♣Q?

YES/NO?

ANSWER:

LAW/S:

QUESTION 9

East makes the opening lead of ♠J out of turn. South tells West to lead anything, and West leads the ♦A. Dummy is spread and the first trick completed. Now South wants West to lead a spade. West objects "you have already said lead anything – you can't have 2 choices especially after seeing dummy." Must West lead a spade?

Pass      3 NT      All pass

West leads ♣K, then ♣Q. South plays ♣7 to the second trick but places his played card pointing to NS.

Case 1: Dummy draws attention to the wrongly pointed card. TD is called and he tells to correct the orientation of the played card and continue playing, but to call him after play ends. West continues ♣T won by south's ♣A. South now takes 5 diamond tricks and finesses the spade Q and makes 9 tricks.

Case 2: Play starts as in case 1 but no one remarks on the wrongly pointed card until after the diamonds are played, when dummy points out the wrongly placed trick. TD is called and he tells to correct the orientation of the played card and continue playing, but to call him after play ends. Declarer finesses the spade Q and makes 9 tricks.

Case 2:

LAW/S:

QUESTION 17

South is playing 5♣ and has made 9 tricks. In the position above he leads ♣A and East discards ♥4 before West has played. TD!

TD Ruling:

- (a) ♥4 is UI for West but he can play any card. At the end of play TD can decide whether or not to give an adjusted or weighted score.
- (b) The TD ruling implies that that declarer can require West to discard a heart.
- (c) South had previously trumped a diamond so West is allowed to discard ♥Q regardless of what East discards.

ANSWER:

QUESTION 18

W	N	E	S
P	1♥	P	X
2♦	2♠	3♦	4♠
5♦	X	P	P
P

North leads face down and now realises that South had doubled his 1♥ bid. TD is called.

TD RULING:

- (a) NS 40%, EW 60%
- (b) NS 40%, EW 40%
- (c) West accepted the double, so play the hand.
- (d) South's double is cancelled, as is all the bidding after it. South can call what he wants and the bidding continues normally.
- (e) South's double is cancelled, as is all the bidding after it. South can call what he wants and the bidding continues but North must pass one round.

ANSWER:

QUESTION 19

W	N	E	S
P	1♥	X	P
1♠	P		2♥

TD is called and gives and explains the options and the bidding continues

W	N	E	S
P	1♥	X	P
1♠	P	2♠	3♥

WHAT DOES THE TD TELL ABOUT THE CONTINUATION OF THE AUCTION? EXPLAIN YOUR ANSWER.

LAW/S:

QUESTION 20

South is declarer in 4♠ and East has a penalty card J♣

West wins a trick and South says "play a spade". West calls the TD and explains that she does not have any spades in her hand.

WHAT IS THE TD'S RULING?

LAW/S:

BONUS QUESTION (if you answer this question correctly you will get 5 extra points.)
